Brief Is Filed on More Roads

Commissioners Met With State Highway Officials Assured of More Roads

The application for 70 miles of farm-to-market road in Randall county was submitted Monday to the State Highway Commission at Austin. G. B. Heath, Clarence Beckman, D. S. Hill and Calvin Casey, members of the court, were accompanied by Harvey Schmidt, county engineer.

Senator Grady Hazlewood met the commissioners and went over the plans. He introduced the commissioners to the Highway Department and assisted them in various ways in presenting the application. All members of the court are high in their praise of Senator Hazlewood and the great interest which he showed in the Randall county project.

A complete brief, giving data on the road construction, farm production of the territory to be tapped, and maps of the county, was filed with the commission. Mr. Schmidt was praised for the fine work which he did in preparing the brief.

All counties of the state are filing their application for farm-to-market roads. Members of the court are convinced that Randall county will get its share of these roads when allotments are made. The number of miles may not be so great as requested, and the location may be changed in these roads in order to serve the most people per mile. Engineers of the department will make a complete survey of all roads of the state before allocations are made.

The paving of Western Avenue running south from Amarillo, and for paving the road to Buffalo Lake were also presented as separate projects as needed in Randall county.

It is the consensus of opinion that farmers are going to lose the gasoline exemption unless they get busy. Several bills are pending to change the exemption, and one bill would entirely repeal this benefit to the farmers. Every farmer in Randall county is urged to write to members of the legislature protesting the repeal of this measure, which returns millions of dollars to the farmers of the state.

Saturday Is Waste Paper Day For The Girl Scouts

Saturday is Waste Paper Day.

Everyone is urged to assist the girls in making this one of the most successful of drives for this much needed article for war and civilian products.

Mrs. H. L. Owens, tele. 369J, will supervise collections in the east part of town; Mrs. E. E. Hawkins, tele. 512J, in the west part; Mrs. Hosea Foster, tele. 441W, around the square.

To make collections easier for everyone, it is suggested that newspapers and magazines be divided into separate stacks, and if possible tied into packages that the girls can handle.

Papers should be placed in front of the house in a place that can be seen from the street. The girls do not plan to knock at your door to ask for papers unless you have called one of the women who will supervise the collections.

People who live in the country who would like to help with this drive may bring their papers and magazines to the garage at 1810 on 7th Avenue. Mrs. Foster will leave her garage open so that the papers can be left there.

All girl scouts and the women working with them will appreciate the cooperation and help of all citizens in making this drive a success.

Lee R. Foster Had Right Arm Broken in Fall

Lee R. Foster, assistant cashier of the First National Bank, suffered a broken bone in his right wrist Tuesday morning when he fell on the icy highway pavement.

Mr. Foster has been fire marshal of Canyon for 25 years. The department was called to the scene of the truck wreck north of Canyon. While the driver of a truck was being sawed out of the wreckage, Mr. Foster was on the lookout for fire from gasoline on the pavement. He slipped on the ice, hitting his right hand on the pavement.

Two years ago Mr. Foster fell at the Legion Hall, breaking his left wrist. After months of suffering from this wrist it was necessary to rebreak and reset the arm. This makes the third time that Mr. Foster has had to go through the pain and inconvenience of a broken arm.

Flames started when the child turned over a gallon container of anti-freeze. Lieutenant Burns explained, and the fluid was ignited by a gas heater. The officer was at a neighbor's home when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Burns also suffered cuts on the hands and arms received when she broke out a window glass in an effort to escape with her child from the burning apartment. A catch on the door had jammed, the husband explained, but she finally managed to open the front door.

The interior of the apartment is ruined. Lt. and Mrs. Burns lost a radio, baby's bed and part of their clothing.

Loss on the building is only fractionally covered by insurance.

Snow and Sleet Adds Little to Year's Moisture

A light snow fell in Canyon Tuesday morning which measured .08 of an inch. There was enough sleet before the snow to make the highways very slippery. However, the streets of Canyon were not bad.

Moisture from the rain and snow of last week amounted to .22 of an inch, or .30 of an inch for the month. Moisture during January amounted to .85 of an inch.

The temperature has been rather mild this week in spite of these light snows. The coldest registered has been 18 degrees above zero.

Oldest Citizens of Canyon Made Red Cross Gift

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Prichard, who are among the very oldest citizens of Randall County, were the first to make their contribution to the Red Cross War Fund. Mr. Prichard having made his inquiries about paying long before the supplies for the campaign were received.

Mr. Prichard is 93 years old, having been born in 1851, in Tennessee, where Mrs. Prichard was also born 86 years ago. They have lived in Texas since 1902 and in Randall county since 1909. They have both been church members about 70 years.

They were married in 1882; six of their eight sons are living.

Of the Red Cross, Mr. Prichard said, "I think giving to the Red Cross is more than a duty; it is a privilege." He and Mrs. Prichard have given regularly for years.

Asked what their wish would be, if only one could be granted them, they said, almost in the same breath, "That there might be forgiveness for everyone in the world." This thought suggests why they believe in the Red Cross.

OPA Asks Use of Mail in Making Ration Requests

The average personal visit to a local War Price and Rationing Board takes ten times as long as the time necessary to process an application sent through the mail. OPA officials declare, in urging citizens of this district to "visit your board by mail."

"Many people believe that quicker action will result from a personal call at the Board offices, but in reality the opposite is true," the district director declared.

War Price and Rationing Boards in the district are undergoing a reorganization with the purpose of better utilizing the time of office personnel and, at the same time, giving better and faster service to the public. Under the new streamlined set-up at the boards, clerks are to handle more office business through the mail and in this respect, "we are appealing to the public for its assistance."

"In addition to saving your time and that of board clerks," he said, "you will be saving tires, gasoline and shoes, the conservation of which is vital to the war effort at home."

So, please visit your board only by mail."

Red Cross Drive For $6,000 Is Started

T. V. Reeves Is County Chairman of Drive For Red Cross Annual Drive

Plans for Randall County's Red Cross War Fund Drive, which begins today have been complete for some time, and community leaders hope to finish their work in a short time. The quota for the county is $6,000. So far as possible, people in rural communities are urged to make their contributions to the leaders whose names were published last week, except that O. M. Scott has been requested to act in place of C. P. Robertson who is away from his community.

If it is more convenient for anyone living in the country to make his contribution in Canyon at the City Hall or at the First National Bank, his home community will be credited just the same.

Canyon citizens are asked to make their contributions at the City Hall or the First National Bank. This will be a great help, as it will make a house to house canvass unnecessary. Receipts, lapel buttons and window stickers will be given to all persons who contribute.

College faculty members and students may make their contributions to D. A. Shirley at the college if that will be more convenient for them.

T. V. Reeves, County War Fund Chairman, will have supplies for the workers at the City Hall, beginning today, and will spend as much time there as possible. Last year, and in most previous years, Randall County has raised its full quota in record time.

Electric Lines to Serve Farmers

Extension in Randall County Is Taking in More Homes of Farmers, Dairymen

Electricity will be made available to nine more farmers in the near future as the result of a deal made Saturday by the Public Service Company and farmers living on proposed line.

It is expected that the line will be built within the next 60 days. Seven farmers all of whom are milk producers will be connected immediately. Two or three other farms adjacent to the line will have a chance to connect later. The seven dairy farms which will be connected immediately after the line is built are J. W. Spencer, C. S. Davenport, Jim Bible, Roy Wall, J. L. Dixon, T. M. Moore and W. L. Browning.

Electricity will be used to operate milking machines, milk coolers, aerator pumps, water pumps and many other labor saving devices in connection with the production of milk.

Electric lines can be extended under War Production Board orders only where it is used for some food production enterprise.

Other farms recently certified for power line connections are: Gerhard Wiegard, Kenton Penrod, Ralph Ruthart, B. E. McCormick, Bill Martin's Dairy, Mack Edwards and Ed Brinkman. Connections have already been made to some of these and the balance are expected to be made soon.

The new high voltage power line into Canyon will make it possible to secure a number of farm connections on the old lines some time during 1945. Electricity on the farm is needed more in times of labor shortage than in normal times. This is especially true of dairy farms where refrigeration units are used for quick cooling of Grade "A" milk.

Since that time Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kennon have cared for Mr. Derr. Four months ago they moved to Hereford.

He is survived by three brothers and two sisters. The brothers are: Jack Derr, Dallas; Marvin Derr, New Mexico; and Kasler Derr, Enid, Okla. Mrs. Mattie Rusk, Dallas, and Mrs. Silid Doughy, Happy, are the surviving sisters.

Editorials

We have the old question of the Palo Duro State Park with its again. The debt of $400,000 against the land is due, and must be paid by next year, or the holders of the notes will recover the land. The prevailing opinion is that $25 per acre for the land is out of reason. Perhaps the scenic value of the land is more than prevailing grazing values. However the experience in operating the Park does not reveal that such a value exists. This session of the legislature will be asked to do something about the Park. A meeting was held in Amarillo the other day and Panhandle citizens will go to Austin to try to work out something. The feeling prevails that if a debt of $25 per acre against the land actually exists, the holders of the notes made a very, very bad loan in years past. If such an excessive loan was really made, the State of Texas should not protect the bad judgment of those who advanced the money. If the land is to be appraised on the amount of revenues which the Park has earned, then the price will tumble. The Newsman has messed with this problem for several years, having served on the advisory committee of the State Parks Board. Based upon this experience, we see no chance for a settlement with the owners of the debt upon an equitable basis. The Park should be kept open for the benefit of Panhandle people. But whether this will be possible is an altogether different story.

War is a science which the layman fails to comprehend. The armchair strategist can lay out his map and protest that the officers in command are making a great blunder by not doing so-and-so. He knows just how the fighting men should be moved, and what it takes to win battles. But being in conflict is a vastly different operation from moving men around on the map. In our bloody battle against the Japs, 6 tons of supplies have been required for each marine landed on Iwo. Much of these supplies was wrecked by Jap shell fire before it could be used. But a sufficient amount of supplies must be there, or the battle will be lost. Our army has the greatest supply problem that has ever confronted a nation. Our military men have worked out these problems and have pushed these supplies forward. But the problem behind delivery difficulties is on the home front. The highest praise is due to American industry and American workers who have produced these war materials and delivered them to the fighting forces as they were needed. It is all the question of scientific operations of the most costly and destructive thing on earth—the foolishness of war.

Old canyon boys wonder why in heck anyone should wish to be up after midnight anyway. We are not bothered by the midnight curfew which is now in operation. But the facts are that millions of workers around war plants will be deprived of their only chance for entertainment and recreation with midnight closing. That may be good for some, but certainly it will open up a new field for black market operations. The loss to the government in revenues will be terrific. City boys are howling that this is just another case of the bureaucrats butting in to disturb the normal way of life. Perhaps it will result in some of those fellows really sleeping a little at night—like the rest of us humans do.

Old Tack of the Amarillo Globe-News is talking about quitting his column. He has been publishing it for 21 years, and some of his readers feel that he is slipping. Frankly, we believe that Tack has no such ideas, but is off on another campaign to see just how popular his column is with the readers. However we know just how he feels about his editorial column. After nearly 35 years turning out stuff for this page, we often have wondered if anyone reads it. Then some one bobs up who says that this page is the best in the paper, and away we go for another year. Anyone who thinks that editing an editorial page is easy and boy's play should try it for 35 years. We sometimes wonder why we have been allowed to live in Canyon after all these years of writing about everything under the sun.

A move is on in the legislature to outlaw unions in Texas. The bill will not get far. Naturally citizens are good and sore at labor racketeers today for the manner in which they are sabotaging the war effort. But these racketeers will pass when a rule of reason is restored in America. We are going through a national hysteria when such leaders are running wild. Organized labor has been responsible for most of the labor reforms in the world. Under honest leadership the unions have improved their standing in the nation. Union members are at fault in allowing foreign influences to get control of the unions. Naturally every American citizen wants to see every American prosper and benefit as the nation grows. But organizing class against class, and engendering class hatred is not the mission of unions. This must be stopped, and when it is stopped, and the true mission of unions is resumed, the people will not be so hostile to these groups.

There are many socialistic persons in America who are becoming bold in saying that now is the time to divide everything up and start over again. Maybe so. But in ten years those who now have the wealth would again control the wealth of the nation—if these socialists should have their way. This small group does not realize that of every thousand persons in America there are perhaps 40 or 50 who have the ability to make and increase their holdings. The balance throw away their incomes for no good purpose. This has always been the case, and will always be the case, regardless of theorists who would upset all existing economic laws for their own benefit.

President J. A. Hill has a program for Canyon. This was published in last week's issue of The News. It is a program which will appeal to all forward looking citizens. All towns are looking at the post-war problem. The difficulty is that all citizens are trying so hard now to keep up their end of the war program that they do not have time for a sufficient amount of planning for the future. But the program as outlined by Dr. Hill is entirely feasible and steps should be taken to put it in operation. City officials, the Chamber of Commerce and City Planning Board, together with other civic minded citizens should get together and adopt a plan for future operations. Without a public plan, little may be accomplished in the future.

The Senate is supposed to act by today on Henry Wallace. There is violent opposition to approval of Henry even as Secretary of Commerce. Anti-New Dealers are fearful that once Wallace is approved for the job, that the President will push a lot of the lending agencies back into this department. Congress does not want Wallace throwing away billions of dollars. Congress has become very independent of the administrative whip. The President is no longer able to charm the members with his voice and personality. Being submissive to administrative will in an emergency is very different to swallowing the entire socialistic program which the President proposes.

Difference of opinion on compulsory military training increases. Ten presidents of big universities protested to the President any action on this question during the war. No sooner had this protest been filed, than ten other presidents of big universities wrote the President to go ahead and push this bill through Congress. So you see that your opinion is as good as any other person's. Write your representatives in Congress just what you think about the problem. All of them will want to hear from home.

The Red Cross Drive is on throughout the nation. There is no question about the need of the Red Cross or the services which it is performing. This is one case in which every American citizen can actually help the fighting man at the front by putting his cash into an organization which is backing every fighting man. Do your best. Give freely to this great organization.

The Army fouled up the detail with Weber, the man who refused to drill. Gave him death, then life and now it is down to five years in the pen. It would have been ever so nice to have handled it in this manner. . . . Get the top-kicker to go to Weber and in deleted words like this say: "Brother, you are no good and if all the men were like you, so help the country and army and what we are fighting for?" Continuing the sergeant could well have said, "You are not fit to associate with real men and so from now on, until the war is over, you are going to have some real, nice, easy jobs to do. You will clean out the slop pails, pick up the dirt in the company streets. You will also get a shovel and dig. You will not associate with real guys, but will spend your time with your own thoughts. Also you will not eat even with the other prisoners, but along. Also any dishes you use will be broken afterwards. For such as low as you are, that is rather fair treatment at that." Quoth the sergeant, "you can think as you like in this country, that is the reason why we fight. I think you are balmy, but so help me, no guy like you should associate with men who do not love to fight and leave home, but do so for patriotic reasons. Now get a broom and sweep out the latrine and do a good job, then on your knees and scrub and scrub."

VIEWS ON RUSSIA

William Henry Chamberlain, one of America's most astute observers of Soviet Russia, writing for a magazine, clears away some of the fog which has surrounded the relations of Poland and Russia from the beginning of the war to the present moment.

With the veil thus partially lifted, neither Poland nor Russia presents a pretty picture for us democratic allies to contemplate.

As Chamberlain reminds those who have listened only to Polish propaganda, that country was a semi-dictatorship before the war, it mistreated the Jews and it was not in general a Sir Galahad among the nations.

But he also reminds us that Poland was the first nation to take up arms against the Nazis; that when it did so it was stabbed in the back by Russia and that despite this when Russia was attacked the Polish government exhibited its willingness to forgive and forget and to join Russia as a full ally against Germany. And yet Russia has gone out of its way to disrupt this alliance, and the cruelty with which it is treating Poles in Russian occupied territory differs only in degree from that which the Poles suffered under the Germans.

The Council of National Liberation, which Russia recognizes now as the Polish government, is, according to Chamberlain, made up mostly of "broken, discredited adventurers." Michal Rola-Zymierski, "minister of war" was convicted under the Pilsudski government of taking bribes from French manufacturers of gas masks and was sentenced to five years in prison. Jan Grubecki, "minister of communications," is a former member of the ENDEK, a national youth organization, and was identified with many anti-Semitic outrages.

The blackest part of this record of Russian-Polish relations is, of course, the abandonment of the Moscow patriots to the Germans after they had been prodded by Soviet-controlled exiles into their uprising as the Red Army reached the gates of the city last summer.

This says Chamberlain, is an odd way of repaying the debt which Russia owes Poland for refusing in 1939 to accept the German offer of a joint war on Russia. Had Poland accepted the Nazi proposal, it is likely that neither France nor England and certainly not the United States would have come into the war, and that Russia would have had to fight all alone two years earlier than it did have to fight with allies on its side.

Maybe Chamberlain is right. Maybe he is biased. But the facts remain that when the Big Three met and the Polish question was up for discussion, Stalin arose, pounded the table and told Roosevelt and Churchill how he was going to settle the question. They had no other choice than accept Stalin's plan.

A few months ago we heard a lot about "intuition," "world domination," and the "superior race." Hitler barked these words upon all occasions. Today he is keeping very quiet, so far as the world is concerned, but still is urging the Germans to keep on dying in order that he may live a little longer. That is certainly a noble incentive for the Germans to carry on the war.

victory and loss to the season's scoring record when they met the Texas Tech team Friday and Saturday of last week. The first game brought a 61 to 51 victory for the Bufs, while in the second game the Tech team was victorious by a score of 48 to 43. It was the seventh time in the history that Tech had won over the Buffaloes. West Texas holds 43 wins over the Lubbock college's basketball since the two schools started playing.

In the first game Deacon Johnson, an All American candidate, took high point honors by gaining 19 points and Kerr of Texas Tech Raiders was runner-up with 16 tallies. Johnson made 13 counters the second night to lead his team's scoring parade, and Jackson and Hardy had 13 apiece for the Raiders.

This week will be the final week of the 1945 basketball schedule for the Buffaloes. They journey to El Paso Friday and Saturday nights for a couple of games with the Texas School of Mines. The Buffaloes accepted a bid to play in the National Intercollegiate Tournament at Kansas City, March 12-19. West Texas State has now won 15 and lost 9 games this campaign. Captain Johnson ran his scoring total to 427 points for the 24 games, bringing his average to a fraction less than 18 points per contest.

Baptist Church Good Record in February

The Sunday school, of which Virgil Henson is general superintendent, gained 31 new members and registered 74 visitors during the month, an average weekly attendance of 306, which is the highest February attendance on record.

Twenty-seven people joined the church during the month, eight of them came on profession of faith for baptism and nineteen came by transfer of membership from other Baptist churches.

The church is financed by volunteer offerings and gifts for missionary and benevolent work are running at an all-time high. Work is continuing on the building which gets nearer completion each week.

Lyceum Program Scheduled for March 9

John Temple Graves, who was to have visited West Texas State last fall, will appear soon. Mr. Graves had planned his appearance for November 16, but because of family illnesses he found it necessary to cancel his engagement. The lyceum committee now announces this speaker for March 9.

Lecturer Graves has been on the editorial staff of the "Birmingham Age-Herald" since 1929. He conducts the daily editorial column, syndicated to Southern newspapers. He has organized and led southern campaigns against everything antagonistic to the South.

Also the author of a book, "The Fighting South," Mr. Graves makes full use of his wide acquaintance with writers, teachers, and economists. As one added characteristic, he presents a number of conclusions and suggestions based on careful study of Southern tradition and qualities, and they are courageous, penetrating, and original. As every Southerner knows, the South is a land full of paradoxes, with its own great history and its own very good reasons for its habits. John Temple Graves is consistently aware of this and he bears a deep understanding and love of the South.

Type High, journalism fraternity, hopes to be able to present Mr. Graves informally to various organizations on the campus while he is here.

Cut Is Made in Canning Sugar For Year 1945

Under a drastically curtailed rationing program, allowance for sugar for home canning this year will be limited to 20 pounds for one person. Any one family will be held to 160 pounds.

Issuance in the state of Texas will begin March 5 and end October 31, 1945. There will be only one continuous issuing period this year, instead of two as last year. However, a second application, making up to 20 pounds per person total, may be made during this one issuing period.

No sugar ration stamps will be validated for canning sugar. All allotments will be made directly by local ration boards. Rations will be determined according to an OPA scale of estimates, with a limit of one pound of sugar for each four quarts of fruit or fruit juices.

Major reason for curtailing this year's program is that sugar stocks are the lowest they have been for any February since the war began. The rationing system which prevailed last year resulted in an over-usage of 300,000 tons, OPA said. Sugar production in Cuba, chief U. S. source, is down from last year, while military needs continue high.

Ships that might otherwise be bringing sugar into the United States are hauling supplies to the battlefronts, and manpower and machinery for the refineries are scarce. Production cannot be measurably increased.

Even so, the total amount to be rationed this year will allow for as much home canning as was actually done during the peak years of 1943 and 1944. "If only those who need it get the sugar," officials said.

Other changes in the 1945 canning sugar rationing program are: 1. Rations will be issued only on the basis of actual need. Applicants must give the amount of canning done last year and the amount of fruit to be canned this year.

2. The initial application, to be made on an OPA form to the ration board, must be accompanied by spare stamp 13 from ration book IV for each member of a family covered in the application. Further applications can be cleared without the stamp which will remain in ration board records.

3. Within the maximum allowance of 20 pounds, only five pounds per person will be allowed for canning other than fruits and fruit juices.

4. No applications will be accepted in this District before March 5 or after October 31, 1945. No more than two applications will be accepted from any family.

5. Persons producing home canned foods for sale will be limited to the amount allotted for this purpose in 1944.

Ration board officials are urging housewives to handle this by mail—they are asked to send for the application by mail and then mail it to the board and in turn the board will mail the coupons.

Mrs. Mattie Davis and Miss Grace Taylor, who teaches school near Hereford, spent the week end here with their sister, Mrs. Gus Wesley.

V-NEWS

How often do we plan the daily meals for our families and do not pay particular attention to the bread for the meal? We may be able to substitute a hot bread for some other part of the meal and still meet the required essentials of the daily body needs. For the busy housewife, quick breads are usually favorites.

Quick breads are those breads or bread-like mixtures which are made up and cooked at once. There are four types of quick breads, the pour batter for griddle cakes; the drop or thick batter for muffins and fritters; the soft dough for biscuits; and lastly the stiff dough for noodles.

We all perhaps have our favorite recipe for griddle cakes and waffles, but some variations may be interesting to the family, such as:

Apple Flapjacks

- 1 tablespoon shortening
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1½ cups flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 cup apples
- cinnamon
- milk

Cream shortening and sugar, add beaten eggs, the flour sifted with baking powder and cinnamon, and chopped apples. Then gradually add milk to make a medium batter. Bake on a griddle as for ordinary pancakes. Serve with pork chops and pork roasts.

How about a variation for ordinary corn bread:

Cornbread Rolls

- 1½ cups flour
- ¼ cup cornmeal
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ½ cup milk
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 2 tablespoons shortening
- 1 egg

Mix and sift dry ingredients and cut in fat. Beat the egg and milk together. Combine the liquid and dry ingredients and kneed slightly; roll out and shape as Parker House rolls. Bake in a hot oven for twenty minutes until well browned.

Then let's change up the everyday muffin:

Rice Muffins

- ¼ cup sugar
- ¼ cup boiled rice
- 1 egg
- 2 tablespoons shortening
- 1 cup milk
- 5 teaspoons baking powder

2½ cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
Mix salt and sugar, boiled rice, egg, melted shortening, and milk. Sift the baking powder and flour together and add to liquid. Bake in greased muffin tins in a hot oven for 40 minutes.

Laymen of Christian Church Organize

A local unit of the Layman's League of the Disciples of Christ was organized at the First Christian Church last Thursday night, February 22. The Layman's League is a popular plan being used in Christian Churches to stimulate interest among men associated with the church.

The newly elected officers of the Canyon Layman's League are Marion Higdon, president; Gene Root, vice-president, and Lawrence Aber, secretary-treasurer. D. A. Shirley is Governor of Layman's League in the Panhandle District. Twenty-one men were present at the charter meeting of the local league. Five men from the Christian Church of Hereford were visitors. The program consisted of a "pointless talk" given by Joe Findley. Fourteen "points" on "church responsibilities" were provided for the men of the league; these were read by the laymen at the "pointless" places in the minister's talk. Future plans of the Canyon league were discussed around a table nicely supplied with hot coffee and doughnuts.

Lion Falkner, who is in charge of the Lions Club program for March 1 has arranged through Grady Wilson of Amarillo for something extra special to come down upon us. Falkner himself doesn't know what's going to happen, but all the local big cats are sure it will be something quite good.

There was a fellow, by the way, who got into trouble by opening a bank. He opened it at 3 o'clock in the morning.

Speaking to the Texas Folklore Society on one occasion, your columnist unburdened himself of the following ideas:

"Of course, humor doesn't count! No really big and important person has ever had any truck with humor—just a few of the unregenerate like Will Rogers, O. Henry, Abraham Lincoln, Mark Twain, Charley Dickens and Bill, the oldest one of the Shakespeare boys.

"But I would like to urge a greater interest in the schools and colleges as far as Texas writings are concerned. We have, here in Texas, the richest materials for literature since the Elizabethan, or at least the Victorian age."

Once upon a time, your columnist wrote some lines of free verse (that means you have to give it away), called "Texas Poets":

You write about bluebonnets—In a land that knew Houston, hero fit for a Greek tragedy; And about cottages nestling in honeysuckle—

Tho' there is the spot that saw Goliad's massacre; And about white poplars marching up a hill into the sunset—When men and women face the drouth, the sand, the wind—And somehow smile!

"Texas!

With its pirates' gold, its cattle-trails, its gunfighters; Its cotton fields, corn fields, wheat fields and oil fields; Its lonely canyons, carved by nature, in a forgotten land, And the lonelier canyons of its cities: Newsboys waving 'extras,' Wrestlers throwing each other out of rings while pale-countenanced clerks shriek; Clyde and Bonnie with blazing machine guns.

Farmer Jim and Ma Ferguson, And six million others doing things brave, foolish, amusing or what-have-you! And yet, Texas poets, you swoon when you behold a dewdrop enfolded by a rose!"

Pvt. Edwin R. Gidden returned to Camp Claiborne, La., Sunday after having spent a 15 day furlough in the parental E. Gidden home.

Lowerclassmen Present Original Negro Graduation Performance

Assembly Includes Society Initiates' Comic Actions

Students of Canyon High School witnessed a Negro graduation exercise in assembly last Friday. Eighth graders and their sponsor, Mrs. Cecil Simms, presented the program. All of the class members had their faces blacked as Negroes and talked in a Negro dialect.

Gerald McDuff, class president, introduced the program with a short reading. After Richard Walters, as school superintendent, gave a short address, the graduates marched in during the playing of "The Graduation March" by Jo Ann Bullard. They then rose and sang a number of Negro spirituals.

Deacon Slack After the singing, Don Hickman, the honor student, gave a short valedictory talk. Then the Deacon, alias Bryce Slack, gave a lecture against sin. Sue Ann Colwell and Mary Lee McGehee sang "The Umbrella Song" and did a tap dance routine to the same music.

Trustees of the Negro school sang "Ac-cent-chu-ate the Positive" as a message to all good students.

Graduates marched across the stage and received their diplomas from Jimmy Lindsey, president of the board.

Pledges Perform

As an added feature, Rose Hugg and Vergie Haines, Quill and Scroll pledges, went through several acts as part of their initiation.

They first competed in a talking contest to avoid holding a piece of ice. Rose gave her opinion of all the high school teachers. To the tune of "Strip Polka" Vergie disrobed herself except for a shorts suit.

Supt. Speer introduced Mr. O. T. Ryan, area supervisor of agriculture.

THAT MISMISS OF JOY

Yes, the government has asked us to do a number of little things such as buying bonds; saving paper, waste fat and tin cans; staying at home over the holidays to save gas and rubber. And, yes, they have made us share our sugar, meat and other foods with the man in the armed services.

But, have you done for your G. I. Joe that extra little something that would make him love you more? Let him know you stood up for an ideal for which he's fighting. Another letter from just you would certainly lift his spirits above the din and misery of his foxhole.

—By Vergie Ruth Haines.

YOU!

Hey, how about letting me say what I think?

I don't know just how many men are killed each day in this war, but the approximate number is by no means pleasant to think about.

And those boys used to play on the basketball team, take their girls riding in Dad's car, hang out at that drugstore, and just plain enjoyed life, exactly like the boys you know who are still at home.

Each minute you waste, every cent, dime, or dollar you spend on anything you don't really need, lengthens the war about so much more, and causes just about so many more men to be killed.

Well, aren't you going to do anything about it?

—By Ellen Root.

Six '44-45 Eagle lettermen will serve as coaches for the intramural teams. They are as follows: seniors, J. Spencer Winn; juniors, Charles Taylor; sophomores, Charles Wright; freshmen, Don Standley; eighth grade, Harley Hicks; and seventh grade, Billy Earl Abbott.

The only practice that will be allowed is three days practice at noon in the high school gym. The first game will be in about two weeks. Each participant must furnish his own equipment.

Those second-string boys were really on the ball this season. They hadn't lost a game until their last game with Price Memorial, Friday night. It was too bad they had to be beaten in their last game, but that'll happen to anybody.

Type High Greets Press Members

Fourteen journalism students of Canyon High School ventured to the recreation room of Buffalo Courts last Thursday afternoon to be guests of Type High, the press organization of West Texas State College which also entertained the Tumbleweed staff and the Prairie journalists.

Polly Winstead, ex-student of Canyon High School and president of Type High told what Type High represented and then introduced Pat Hill who gave an interesting talk on early newspapers. Anita Davis, also an ex of Canyon High School, introduced the speaker, Mrs. John N. Merriman of the Amarillo Times. Mrs. Merriman gave some hints on good news writing which she had gained through much experience.

Traditional refreshments of cider and doughnuts were served to the journalists and their sponsors.

Girls Commence Volley Ball Play

Eighteen girls began practicing volleyball Monday, February 19, under the instruction of Miss Wanda Price, physical education teacher.

Those participating are Bonnie Drake, Louise Dickinson, Velta Speer, Marilyn Johnigan, Anita Johnigan, Frances Gooch, Myrtle Dooley, Betty Brown, Nancy Wilson, Alice Prichard, Martha Jean Avent, Joan Morton, Mary Etta Canada, Lorene Seales, Pauline Seales, Pauline Baker, Geneva McDougall, Marie Wesley and Fawn Rogers.

Match games with surrounding ball teams are being planned. "The girls are doing wonderful work and I'm sure we'll have a winning volleyball team to represent Canyon High School," says Miss Price.

Pledges Endure Torture

HUGG

"And as for my hair, do you think I would care to comb it at night with my toes?"

No, no one has gone nuts yet! This is merely a part of the poem given to the Quill and Scroll pledges (Vergie Ruth Haines and Rose Hugg) to say to their superiors, (Ellen Sanders, Margaret Lair and Ellen Root) any time and anywhere they meet them.

Fat Woman

Heah come that niggar scrub woman, Dinah! This was the character Rose Hugg imitated during the very informal initiation Friday. Rose, who weighs 110 lbs. and is 5 ft. 1 in. tall, wore a long rust colored dress, and being stuffed with pillows, appeared to weigh about 160 lbs. Her make-up consisted of burnt cork only. Large blue fuzzy slippers completed her ridiculous costume. One would think that her only friend on Friday was the sympathetic gray kitten she carried about with her.

Vergie was also dressed fit to attend a dog fight. Her costume consisted of a night-shirt, old faded pinafore, sweater, slacks, and shorts, while her hair was very straight and stringy. On one foot she wore a pump and on the other she wore a low-heeled overshoe, and she carried a bucket of gold-fish.

Useful Night Shirt

These unfortunate victims were subject to a number of other punishments during the day. For instance, Vergie had to polish shoes and clean tables with her night-shirt, take her gold fish out and show them to everyone in the English IV class, do a fancy strip-tease in assembly and play Paul Revere, shouting a warning into each classroom. Among other things, Rose was required to demonstrate the art of putting on make-up without a mirror with her left hand, dance a jig in her lovely pillowcase, read to the students in study hall about hogs from an encyclopedia, give her honest opinion of all the teachers in assembly and play the Lone Ranger on a mop-stick.

Selected recently by Supt. J. B. Speer and Mrs. Nora E. Gilmore as candidates for membership in Quill and Scroll, International Honor Society for High School Journalists, Rose and Vergie will be formally initiated in a CHS assembly soon. They will be entitled to receive pins and the Quill and Scroll magazine.

brought to you by . . .

As so many of us wait with anxious hearts, we are grateful for our radios, that help to pierce the wall of silence between the fighting fronts and home.

Most of us could never hear the war's historic broadcasts were it not for dependable electric service that brings our radios to life at the snap of a switch. The same electric service makes the broadcast possible—for it supplies the power by which your local station flings signals into space from its transmitter.

When seeing the news while you hear it becomes a commonplace, along with many another new appliance, you will be more thankful than ever for dependable electric service. Be sure that your new home can take full advantage of it. Plan now for adequate wiring. Have your contractor see that wiring will handle the electrical load which the many new appliances and lighting will demand.

OUR FIGHTERS NEED YOUR DOLLARS FOR THE RED CROSS

Through the Red Cross the American people serve the men of their Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard.

Don't Let Them Down

General Eisenhower Appeals

GENERAL "IKE" knows—better than anybody else—how many of his wounded G. I. Joe's are saved from death by life-saving Red Cross Blood Plasma!

He knows how a young soldier worries when there's no news from loved ones—or bad news—and how his spirits rise when a special Red Cross Home Service message says everything's O. K. at home!

General "Ike" knows the way a bombing crew, back safe from a perilous mission, go for the coffee and doughnuts the Red Cross girls serve! He knows how the Red Cross is always on the job at the front—day and night—to make G. I. Joe's life a little more like the life he left—back in the U. S. A.

And this is what General "Ike" says about the Red Cross:

"We simply couldn't get along without it. I consider the Red Cross an auxiliary of my army. They are doing a perfectly magnificent job in every way."

ASK G. I. JOE

He'll tell you what the Red Cross does for him—and how! Listen to this boy's letter to his dad:

"Pop, whenever the Red Cross comes to you for money, give what you can spare, as they are wonderful to us."

"Dad if you help anything or anybody, please give to the Red Cross because they help us. Plenty! If it wasn't for them, I don't know what our overseas soldiers would do. So Dad, do as I say. Help the Red Cross just for me."

ASK YOURSELF

Ask yourself: "Have I done as much as I can for my Red Cross—which is at my boy's side—ready to aid, comfort and cheer him?"

You can't do too much to help the devoted workers in this great Army of Mercy—who risk their lives over and over again to bring our millions of G. I. Joe's the proof that they are not forgotten by their home folks.

The Red Cross is doing your job—doing for your boy what you can't do. But you can help by giving more to the Red Cross now. It's job is stupendous—and it's growing bigger.

Give as much more as you can—today!

Miss Wynema Collins of Los Angeles, California is visiting her aunt, Mrs. E. S. Trout.

Pastor Talked at Rotary Luncheon Tuesday Noon

Rev. C. C. Armstrong spoke at the Rotary club luncheon Tuesday. He followed the program as outlined by Dr. J. A. Hill the previous week and added suggestions. The Rotary Code of Ethics will lead the citizens of Canyon to undertake the program as outlined.

So long as 7 billion dollars, $54 per capita, is spent for booze in this nation, there is little chance for an effective youth program, pointed out the speaker. Prohibition is not a political question, but is a moral question. The nation will have to do something about booze.

Hyprocracy is the sin of the age. It is the national and individual sin. No one can fool his neighbor, no matter how much he tries.

If the citizens of Canyon decide that they wish to accomplish the program proposed by Dr. Hill, they can succeed. But each one will have to put his whole soul into the undertaking—not just half try.

Glenn Truax was introduced as a new member, being transferred here from Denton.

Visitors were: T. M. Moore, Jr.; Sgt. Virgil Kelly; Gus Barr, John

Cowan, L. V. Dorsch, Raymond Hollingsworth, Oran Thomas, R. E. Wertz, W. C. Yantis, all of Amarillo.

Magician Will Give W. T. Program

Under sponsorship of the Lions Club of Canyon, announcement was made today that Birch, America's foremost magician, with his company of assisting artists will play an engagement in the College Auditorium, March 21.

Slicing a beautiful girl into four parts, shooting a live canary into a burning light bulb, causing a live pony to vanish in mid-air, and many other startling mysteries will be presented by this master magician and company in a magic potpourri of thrills and fun.

Heading the Birch staff of assisting artists is Mabel Sperry, hailed by critics as the world's greatest girl xylophonist.

Tickets for this matinee and evening program will soon be available from members of the Lions Club.

A. W. Locke from Mangum, Okla., is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. J. Walker and Mr. Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. May and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Fulton returned from Florida Sunday night.
